THE NEWS OF THE WEEK.

A Daily Resume of Latest Happenings.

MAY 8.

The House of Commons has agreed to a guarantee of a Transvaal loan of $175,000,000.

President Roosevelt spent yesterday at Grand Canyon, Ariz., and proceeded to California, where he will make his first stop today.

The impression prevails in London that there will be strong opposition in the Columbian Congress to the ratification of the Panama canal treaty. A special session may therefore not be called.

The fishing schooner Gloria, of Gloucester, Mass., was wrecked at Canoe, N. S., and the captain and fourteen members of the crew were drowned. Only three persons on board escaped.

Brig. Gen. Alsworth reports good progress in preparing the muster rolls of the Union and Confederate armies. The greatest difficulty in obtaining the Confederate muster rolls exists in Missouri and Texas.

Soil capable of growing tobacco equal to that in Cuba has been found by the Agricultural Department in Texas, Alabama and South Carolina. Secretary Wilson says it also exists in other Southern States.

Information from Nicaragua is that the war is not yet ended, despite the optimistic view of President Zelaya. The revolutionists are still in control of the river, of San Juan, the artery between Lake Nicaragua and the sea.

The third railway district Republican convention met yesterday at Paris, but had made small progress up to the time of adjournment last night. Judge G. W. Gourley was elected temporary chairman. Conflicts from several counties are causing trouble in the committee, and the convention may be in session for several days.

Ned Strong, an agent of the Breckinridge county, has informed Mrs. J. B. Marcum that on Sunday night he overheard a plot in a "blind tiger" saloon, three miles from Jackson, to assassinate James B. Marcum on the following Monday. Strong says he sent a man to Jackson to warn Marcum, but the messenger failed to reach the attorney in time, and was endeavoring to attract Marcum's attention when the fatal shot was fired. Gov. Beckham has offered a reward of $500 for the arrest and conviction of the assassin. The Governor suggested in a letter to Judge Hargis that a reward should be offered. Hargis responded by wire, naming $250 as the amount. Gov. Beckham raised it to $500, the statutory limit. Circuit Judge Redwine reached Jackson yesterday from Campbell, and stated that he had written to Gov. Beckham asking that troops be sent to Jackson in case the necessary arrests for the presence. He also recommended that a reward be offered for the assassin's arrest.

MAY 9.

Dr. Albert Alonzo Ames was yesterday convicted of accepting a bribe of $500 while he was mayor of Minneapolis. A long fight on an appeal will follow the jury's verdict.

The Rock Island is said to have secured control of the St. Louis and San Francisco, and President Yoakum, of the latter road, has been elected a director of the Rock Island.

Nine men were killed and five were injured, three of them probably fatally, by a slide of rock in a tunnel at Eggleston Springs, Va., on the Norfolk and Western railroad.

The Court of appeals yesterday overruled the petition for a rehearing for John Black, the Louisville negro sentenced to be hanged on May 15 for the murder of his uncle, Archie James, in May, 1902.

President Roosevelt was formally welcomed to California yesterday by Gov. Pardee and other State officials at Redlands. In an address the President again discussed the advantages of irrigation.

News that Dr. Adolph Lorenz, the Austrian surgeon, would perform further operations brought fifty patients with crippled children to a New Orleans hospital. He was able to select only one child, whom he treated for a club foot.

A. W. Talloch, for many years cashier of the Washington post-office, has written a salty letter to Postmaster General Payne, in which he says that when there he has secured of knowledge of irregular postal affairs make their replies to Mr. Pain he will make public full details to support his charges.

In a freight wreck on the Illinois Central railroad at Harding station, in Union county, three trainmen were killed, and eight cars demolished. The wreck was caused by a mule on the track. The men killed were Engineer Shogor, of Central City; Fireman Manion, of Henderson, and Brakeman Higgs, colored, also of Henderson.

Because the citizens object to a negro letter-carrier, Postmaster General Payne has suspended service on rural free delivery route No. 1, at Gallatin, Tenn. John C. Allgood, the negro carrier, was held up by two masked men and ordered not to make another trip. Postmaster General Payne was notified of the occurrence, and ordered the service suspended, pending an investigation of the affair.

MAY 10.

Maj. Charles Semple, a prominent Confederate and citizen, died yesterday at his home in Louisville.

Twenty-five strikers were sworn in as special Deputy Sheriffs at Omaha yesterday to protect non-union workmen.

The appearance of bubonic plague at Callao, Peru, is causing alarm, and Guayaquil, Ecuador, has quarantined against Callao.

Archbishop Kain will give up the St. Louis archbishopric and go to Baltimore to enter a sanatorium in the hope of regaining failing health.

A man giving the name of Henry Sharp surrendered last night to the authorities at Muncie, Ind., saying he killed James Frazier at Jackson, Ky., two years ago and had since been a fugitive.

Inspector Conger, of Nashville, has been instructed by the Post-office Department to investigate the case of the rural mail carrier hold-up at Gallatin, Tenn., and the route will probably be abolished if the charges filed are true.

Friends of John C. Wood, at Mt. Sterling are sore over the action of Congressman Vincent Boreling, who made a strenuous fight for Siler, and to whose influence they attribute Wood's defeat in the Republican convention at Paris.

After an exciting election Dr. L. S. McMurry, of Louisville, was defeated for president of the American Medical Association by Dr. J. H. Musser, of Philadelphia, who, having left New Orleans, could not be installed and will not assume office for a year.

President Roosevelt arrived in Los Angeles, Cal., yesterday afternoon in time to witness the annual Fiesta de las Flores. A marvelous floral display was also the feature of his visit to Pasadena, where he met Mrs. J. A. Garfield, widow of the former President.

The Southern Baptist Convention began its sessions in Savannah yesterday with 1,767 delegates in attendance. Former Gov. Eagle, of Arkansas, was re-elected president. The foreign mission report showed great receipts, Kentucky contributing $22,241.77. Dallas, Nashville and Louisville are contending for the next convention.

Russia has replied to China's refusal to grant the Manchurian demands by a warlike movement. Not only has a naval force assembled, but now Chang had suddenly been reoccupied by a larger force, while garrisons and forts have been established along the Liao river. Other points have been ordered occupied and new forts are being erected.

August W. Machen, General Superintendent of the free delivery system in the Post-office Department, has been suspended pending an investigation of his department.

ing an investigation of his department. This branch of the service has been placed in charge of M. C. Fosner, a post office inspector, who will run it under the direction of Fourth Assistant Postmaster General Bristow. Meachen declares he courts a full investigation, while Postmaster General Payne declines to discuss the details of his sensational action.

Many of the citizens of Lexington are strongly in favor of a movement to abolish the county of Breathitt, and the sentiment is endorsed by some of the citizens of Jackson. Judge Redwine says he is undecided about calling a special term of court at Jackson, and says his action will depend on the wishes of the prosecution—though there doesn't seem to be anything worth calling "the prosecution" in this case. Gov. Beckham will send troops to Jackson if the Circuit Judge requests it.

MAY 11.

The entire Freshman class of Syracuse University has been suspended for riotous conduct.

Cotton continues its record-breaking advance Saturday at from 10 to 22 points over Friday's high prices.

The Isthmian Canal Subcommittee, which has returned to Washington, anticipates the ratification of the canal treaty by Columbia.

President Roosevelt arrived at Santa Barbara, Cal., Saturday. Among the points of interest visited was the old mission of the Franciscan fathers.

Pope Leo has addressed to President Roosevelt an autograph letter expressing his appreciation of the President's action in sending him a jubilee present.

Senator Foraker has prepared a resolution endorsing President Roosevelt for another term, and will offer it as a plank in the Ohio Republican platform at next month's State Convention.

James Dower, a fireman in the employ of the Postoffice Department was dismissed by Postmaster General Payne because he had made charges against his superior officers and failed to substantiate them.

Mrs. Josephine McCarty, mother of Wm. McCarty, who will be executed at Lexington next Friday for the murder of his wife, died yesterday. She did not know a date had been set for the execution of her son.

Russian Finance Minister Witte resigned Saturday rather than accept orders from the Grand Duke Alexander Michailovitch. The czar induced him to withdraw it, which he did only after the Grand Duke apologized.

William F. Vilas, former Senator from Wisconsin, declared in an interview Saturday that Mr. Cleveland would not be a candidate for the presidential nomination. He said he drew this conclusion from correspondents and talks with the former President.

The Southern Baptist Convention has decided to hold its next meeting in Nashville. The Alumni Association of the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary in Louisville has decided to endow a chair.

President Mallin's report on the 200 students, of whom twenty-four are women. The Rev. Dr. Carter Helm Jones is among the new members of the Board of Trustees. Secretary Hay, following the withdrawal of Russian troops from New Chang, has decided that no action, even of a diplomatic nature, need be taken by the United States in the Manchurian difficulty.

Both the Russian and Japanese Ministers insist that their Governments have kept faith in the affair. The alleged military preparations of Russia in Manchuria are ridiculed at St. Petersburg.

Tom Cokrell has sworn out a warrant charging Curtis Jett with the assassination of J. B. Marcum at Jackson, Ky. Jett has left Jackson and is believed to have gone to Winchester. Officers are searching for him. An unconfirmed report reached Lexington that Deputy Sheriff Ewen, who was standing by Marcum when the latter was shot and who is believed to have seen the assassin, had been fired upon at Jackson yesterday. Circuit Judge D. B. Redwine has decided not to call a special session of the Circuit Court in Breathitt county to investigate the assassination of J. B. Marcum. It is announced that this course is taken in compliance with the wishes of Marcum's friends.

MARCH 12.

A determined Sheriff at Fremont, O., held back a mob from lynching three negroes, suspected of murder.

Joaquin Miller, known on two continents as the "Poet of the Sierras," died suddenly last evening at his home in Oakland, Cal.

A fierce forest fire is raging in the Allegheny Mountains near Dunlo, Pa., and fear is felt for the safety of several camps of lumbermen.

President Roosevelt passed Sunday quietly at the Hotel Delmonico, California. The presidential party left this morning for the North.

The commercial bodies of Indianapolis have set a movement on foot to try to obtain both the Democratic and Republican national conventions.

The Republican State Central Committee will meet in Louisville Thursday to determine upon the method of nominating candidates for State offices.

A Southern passenger train left the track near White Pine, Tenn., causing a wreck, in which Engineer Holloman was killed and seven others were injured.

Twelve hundred recruits are said to have been placed in danger of cerebro spinal meningitis by an outbreak of the disease on two United States war vessels stationed at Philadelphia. Three deaths have occurred.

Patrick Moore, a Pennsylvania railroad flagman at Hahway, found a check for $21,000 that had fluttered from the car window. The check was drawn on a Chicago bank in favor of Mrs. Isabella Stewart.

In the opinion of Representative Swanson, of Virginia, the presidential talk about Grover Cleveland will have the effect of uniting the uniting the Democratic party, and will probably result in the nomination of Parker or Gorman.

The Civil Service Commission has made public a statement with reference to the two colored rural free delivery carriers at Gallatin, Tenn., in which it says that no protest was received against either man, though appointments are only made where the applicant is satisfactory to the patrons of the route.

Rioting has broken out among the striking switchmen of the Mobile and Ohio railroad at Jackson, Tenn. Two trains were derailed, another cut in two and a bridge foreman, acting as foreman of a construction train, was shot after the negro workmen had been driven off. The railroad company has called upon Gov. Frazier to furnish militia to protect its employees from the strikers.

Curtis Jett was yesterday arrested at the home of his mother, Mrs. Levenie Higgins in Madison county, on the charge of assassinating James B. Marcum last Monday at Jackson, Ky. The arresting officers were Sheriff Woodson McChord and a posse who accompanied him from Winchester. On arriving at his mother's home Jett threatened to shoot his stepfather, who did not want him to remain at the house. Sheriff McChord and his posse found Jett in bed. The arrest was accomplished without incident, and the prisoner was taken to Winchester and lodged in jail. The reported assassination of Belvin J. Ewen, at Jackson Saturday, was yesterday denied.

GREATLY ALARMED

By a Pleasant Cough, but Permanently Cured by Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

Mr. H. P. Barbaghe, a student at law, in Greenville, S. C., had been troubled for four or five years with a continuous cough which he says, "greatly alarmed me, causing me to fear that I was in the first stage of consumption." Mr. Barbaghe, having seen Chamberlain's Cough Remedy advertised, concluded to try it. Now read what he says of it: "I soon felt a remarkable change and after using two bottles of the twenty-five cent size was permanently cured." Sold by A. M. Hughes.

A Revelation.

If you will make inquiry it will be a revelation to you how many succumb to kidney or bladder troubles in one form or another. If the patient is not beyond medical aid, Foley's Kidney Cure will cure. It never disappoints. Sold by Louisa Drug Co.

The new anti-strike laws of the Netherlands have been signed by Queen Wilhelmina.

Traveling is Dangerous.

Constant motion jars the kidneys which are kept in place in the body by delicate attachments. This is the reason that travelers, trainmen, street car men, teamsters and all who drive very much, suffer from kidney disease in some form. Foley's Kidney Cure strengthens the kidneys and cures all forms of kidney and bladder disease. Geo. E. Housan, locomotive engineer, Lima, O., writes, "Constant vibration of engine caused me a great deal of trouble with my kidneys, and I got no relief until I used Foley's Kidney Cure." Sold by Louisa Drug Co.

Libson, Ohio, will have a centennial celebration June 10th and 11th.

A Little Early Riser

now and then, at bedtime will cure constipation, biliousness and liver troubles. DeWitt's Little Early Risers are the famous little pills that cure by arousing the secretions, moving the bowels gently, yet effectively, and giving such tone and strength to the glands of the stomach and liver that the cause of the trouble is removed entirely, and if their use is continued for a few days, there will be no return of the complaint. Sold by the Louisa Drug Co., Dr. J. D. Biggs, Mgr.

Gov. Beckham has abandoned the trip to St. Louis with his staff because of lack of funds.

The X-Rays.

Recent experiments, by practical tests and examination with the aid of the X-Rays, establish it as a fact that Catarrh of the Stomach is not a disease of itself, but that it results from repeated attacks of indigestion. "How Can I Cure My Indigestion?" Kodol Dyspepsia Cure is curing thousands. It will cure you of indigestion and dyspepsia, and prevent or cure Catarrh of the Stomach. Kodol digests what you eat—makes the stomach sweet. Sold by the Louisa Drug Co., Dr. J. D. Biggs, Mgr.
